

CRF 2: CREATIVE ECONOMY RECOVERY GRANT Individual Artist Reimbursement Guidelines

Coronavirus Relief Funding: ROUND 2

Coronavirus, Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act Relief Funding

The Sacramento City Council approved using federal Coronavirus Relief Funding (CRF) provided through the CARES Act to help support individual artists who have experienced financial hardship because of the crisis caused by the global coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. The CRF will be managed by the Sacramento Office of Arts and Culture (OAC).

The Creative Economy Recovery grant provides reimbursement for eligible expenses to individual artists who contribute to Sacramento's Creative Economy. For questions while completing your application, please email artgrants@cityofsacramento.org. For additional Coronavirus Relief Funding opportunities for the Arts and Culture sector, please visit arts.cityofsacramento.org.

GUIDELINES

The CARES Act and subsequent guidelines issued by the U.S. Department of the Treasury specify the type of expenditures and programs which may be funded using CARES funds. The City's use of CARES funds are limited to expenditures that:

- Are necessary expenditures incurred due to the COVID-19 public health emergency;
- Were not accounted for in the Fiscal Year (FY) 2020 budget;
- Can be expended before December 30, 2020;
- Were not reimbursed through a prior CARES Act funding source.

The City will use the answers to the questions in the following section to determine if the expenditures are eligible for CARES funding. It is the responsibility of the applicant to provide evidence of eligibility. Please review the following documents before responding to questions in this section.

ATTACHMENT 2: Race and Cultural Equity Statement

The Arts, Culture, and Creative Economy (ACCE) Commission believes that all people in the City of Sacramento have the right to celebrate and engage in meaningful and relevant arts and cultural experiences. Each member of the community should experience arts which reflect and nourish their identity and self-esteem. The ACCE Commission is committed to ensuring racial and cultural equity in its outreach, funding, leadership, resource allocation, partnerships, and programs. The ACCE Commission believes that equity moves past inclusion and representation; accepting that power has created uneven starting points for some communities and individuals.

The ACCE Commission defines Cultural Equity as the inclusion and fair representation of multiple diverse populations in outreach and in the allocation of funding, resources (e.g., facilities and fiscal), and programs, providing equitable and fair treatment, access, opportunity, and advancement for all people, while at the same time striving to identify and eliminate barriers that have prevented the full participation of some communities.

The ACCE Commission's definition of Diversity includes all the ways in which people differ, including but not limited to, race, ethnicity, gender, socioeconomic status, age, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, geography, citizenship status, religion, language, physical appearance, and those affiliating with multiple identities. Our definition also includes diversity of thought: ideas, perspectives, and values.

The ACCE Commission defines Communities as municipalities, neighborhoods, social and cultural enclaves, diverse groups, and groups with distinct demographic characteristics residing within the City of Sacramento.

The ACCE Commission defines Access as giving all individuals, organizations, and communities in Sacramento County fair and just pathways to appreciate and be exposed to the arts as well as attain information, financial resources and opportunities to fulfill cultural and artistic expression and development.

The Arts, Culture, and Creative Economy Commission commits to ensuring racial and cultural equity in all its policies and practices. To implement the principles of the Cultural Equity statement, the ACCE Commission will engage in:

Outreach and Engagement. The ACCE Commission will continually practice proactive outreach to multiple diverse communities to support involvement and engagement in ACCE Commission opportunities, programs, resources, and partnerships and provide accessibility and inclusivity in all aspects of leadership, partnerships, and programs. The ACCE Commission will advocate for equitable resources to support and serve multiple diverse populations specifically.

Equity and Access. The ACCE Commission acknowledges that inequity is pervasive and historic. Simple diverse representation does not dismantle the unequal nature of voice, resource allocation, and visibility that exist in the arts and cultural ecosystems. Disparities and discrimination are daily occurrences that are entrenched in long standing majority privilege and power inside and outside of the arts; tackling issues surrounding these occurrences requires an understanding of the root causes of disparities within our society. The ACCE Commission commits to systemic change that will remove barriers, thus improving access, empowerment and representation in the development and distribution of arts policy and resources to diverse communities and individuals. The ACCE Commission acknowledges that there are different methods of communication and embraces a variety of communication styles that will allow for equitable access.

Accountability. The ACCE Commission will hold itself accountable by acknowledging that equity does not currently exist in the arts. The ACCE Commission will provide transparent and inclusive processes in the selection and allocation of all arts funding, resources and the development of policies and practices. The ACCE Commission commits to ongoing evaluation and review of the effectiveness of cultural equity practices and procedures, such as conducting and regularly revisiting a race and cultural equity audit of the internal policies and external communications of our organization to provide internal guidance. The ACCE Commission commits to sharing the results of cultural equity audits publicly.
